Our Company Mission

Everything we do at Home Instead CareGiver is driven by our universal mission: To enhance the lives of aging adults and their families.

When our founders Paul and Lori Hogan began providing care for Paul's grandmother to help her remain at home, they envisioned a future where all people could age with greater hope and success. We strive to make that vision a reality with every life we are privileged to touch.

Changing the Face of Aging

The old face of aging was the fear of getting old.
The new face is hope and promise.
